Jeg bekræfter hermed overførsel af DNA-data fra det valgte sæt til Family Tree DNA. Jeg forstår, at overførslen af data vil skabe en kopi, der ikke beskyttes af MyHeritages indstillinger for DNA-sikkerhed og privatlivsbeskyttelse. Jeg forstår yderligere, at de originale DNA-data forbliver hos MyHeritage, og at MyHeritage ikke vil være i stand til at sikre eller genskabe en kopi af dataene, efter de er overført til Family Tree DNA.

Terms of Service and Privacy Statement

Terms of Service

Welcome to the FamilyTreeDNA Family! Thank you for choosing us to support you in your journey of discovery. We encourage you to read the below Terms of Service as well as our Privacy Statement and Law Enforcement Guidelines prior to your purchase.

1. For Reference

A. "FamilyTreeDNA" ("we," "us," "our," "the Company") is a d/b/a for Gene by Gene, Ltd., whose principal place of business is at 1445 N Loop W, Houston, TX 77008.

B. "DNA sample" or "sample" refers to the cheek swab or any other sample provided for the purposes of Genomic Sequencing.

2. Acceptance of FamilyTreeDNA Terms

This Agreement refers specifically to the acceptable use of the FamilyTreeDNA Services.

This Terms of Service (TOS) Agreement is an electronic contract that establishes the legally binding terms you must accept to use the Website. These TOS cover any use of the Services, including but not limited to (a) your submission of a DNA sample for DNA extraction, processing, and storage, (b) uploading a digital version of your Genetic Information with the intent of interacting with it on the FamilyTreeDNA website, and/or (c) creating and using a free FamilyTreeDNA account without providing your Genetic Information or DNA sample. To use the Services, you must first agree to these TOS. You may not use the Services if you do not accept

Consent to Participate in Matching

Consent to Participate in Matching

By agreeing to participate in DNA matching, I understand that FamilyTreeDNA will compare my DNA results with other users in the database who are participating in matching.

If you choose to participate in DNA Matching, you will be listed as a DNA Match to your matches. You, as well as your matches, can:

1. Discover how you are related.
2. View each other's name, email, picture, haplogroups, earliest known ancestors, ancestral surnames, user stories, Ancestor's country of residence, and family trees.
3. See how and where you all match each other on common DNA locations, and view suggested common ancestors.
4. See where you match genetic relatives and where genetic relatives match each other in common with yourself.
5. Opt out of matching at different matching levels, including Law Enforcement Matching.

You can change your matching preferences at any time in your Privacy & Sharing settings. To learn more about relevant matches, please visit the Learning Center.

Discovering new DNA matches can be exciting, but you may also experience surprises, such as unknown relatives that you and your family were not aware of. For further information, please visit our Terms of Service and Privacy Statement prior to consent.
